Cors Goch, near Llanbedrgoch, Anglesey. 10 a.m. until 4.00 p.m.

Cors Goch reflects a long history of human activity. Used by the local community for centuries, it is a place where cattle grazed, reeds were cut, and stone was quarried to make millstones. Discover the spectacular patchwork of habitats, each with its own unique character and array of wildlife. Today we will be carrying out a variety of jobs including bracken management – a good opportunity to have a go with an Austrian scythe. Please contact Matt Cole if you would like to attend.

Thursday 2nd July

Dolgarrog, Conwy Valley. 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Meet at the entrance to the Memorial Gardens and Woodland, Conwy Road, Dolgarrog. Grid reference SH769676, What3Words: lectures.whiplash.series and nearest postcode LL32 8JR.

The series of lagoons and surrounding habitat at Llyn Celanedd provide shelter & food for wildfowl, waders, and smaller birds, especially during the autumn & spring migrations. Today we will be carrying out a variety of tasks around the nature reserve including putting up new information signs, cutting back footpaths, tidying the bird hides and doing a litter pick along the shoreline. There will be an opportunity to do some bird watching so don't forget your binoculars! Contact Matt Cole if you would like to attend and if you would like a lift from our Bangor Office.

Project in Dolgarrog removing Himalayan Balsam, an invasive, non-native plant. We are trying to create a buffer zone around Coed Dolgarrog National Nature Reserve to prevent the spread of INNS into this wonderful woodland. Many hands make light work and so it would be great if you could come along and join us. Don't worry if you can't stay all day – any help is welcome! Please contact Sue Loughran if you would like to attend.
